Dear Professor Goyal,

Re: The J. N. Tata Scholarship Advertisement

As you may be aware, the J.N. Tata Endowment is an educational foundation established in 1892 by the Founder, Jamsetji Tata, for the award of loan scholarships to Indian nationals. The J.N. Tata scholarship is a prestigious scholarship and is awarded on an all-India basis.

The Endowment has already released its advertisement in the Indian Express, Mumbai Samachar, The Assam Tribune and The New Indian Express throughout the country on Saturday, 3rd December, 2011 as well as in Jam-E-Jamshed and Hindustan Times - Education on Sunday, 4th December, 2011 and Wednesday, 7th December, 2011 respectively inviting applications for loan scholarships for higher studies abroad for the Fall 2012 and Spring 2013 semesters.

We enclose a copy of the advertisement and shall be grateful if you will kindly arrange to have it displayed on the Notice Board of your institution for the benefit of the final year students. Meritorious students aspiring to go abroad for higher studies may be encouraged to apply before the due date. Application forms are being issued from 5th December, 2011 to 24th February, 2012. The last date for the receipt of completed applications is 5th March, 2012.

We are writing to you in order to ensure that information about the J.N. Tata scholarship is available to students from institutions spread throughout the country. The final selection of candidates depends on their performance at their interview, good results at the final examinations, achievements in co-curricular activities and evidence of admission to a reputed university abroad. All the awards are announced latest by the last week of July 2012.

With best regards,

Yours sincerely,
