

Study in Canada, apply now for Fall 2012:

For students planning to study abroad in the Fall 2012 intake, now is the right time to work on your applications for Canadian universities and colleges. Be sure to check these resources for more information:

- Study in Canada: www.educationauincanada.ca
- Association of Universities and Colleges of Canada (AUCC): www.aucc.ca
- Scholarships: www.scholarships-bourses.gc.ca
- FAQs on student visa permits: www.india.gc.ca

Several Canadian universities offer scholarships for qualified international students. Here are some examples of universities offering scholarships specifically for Indian students:

- University of Toronto's coveted scholarship covers expenses including tuition, accommodation, books and the cost of a return flight home for each year of undergraduate study. Students from India have won scholarships in 2010 and 2011, with the current winner enrolled in Rotman's Commerce program
- Vancouver Island University offered three Indian students scholarships in 2011 in the Bachelor of Science and Business Administration programs
- University of Alberta offers exclusive scholarships for Indian students

Many other universities and colleges across Canada offer scholarships and financial aid for international students including Indians. Contact the universities for more information.