

Arboretum

The arboretum of the department of Botany is a refuge of various important plants available in the state. Place just next to the University Main Office the arboretum has a very special outlay. It has been planned in such a way that the plants are grown according the Bentham and Hooker system of classification.

The Main features of the Arboretum are

- Area 8.9 acres
- 112 Tree Species
- 56 speices of medicinally important plants